

A portfolio for Architects of Some
PERIOD STYLE INTERIORS

A Study Room with Colonial characteristics, designed by Aymar Embury II, Architect, New York City, and decorated by The Arden Studios. Fenestra Casement Windows manufactured by Detroit Steel Products Company, Detroit, Michigan

Fenestra
FENWROUGHT CASEMENTS (Screened)

A Living Room in the Spanish style, designed by Cram & Ferguson, Architects, Boston, around Fenestra Casement Windows, manufactured by Detroit Steel Products Company, Detroit, Michigan

Fenestra
FENWROUGHT CASEMENTS (Screened)

A Living Room designed in the English manner, by Meade & Hamilton, Architects, Cleveland, and decorated by Rorimer-Brooks Studios, around Fenestra Casement Windows, manufactured by Detroit Steel Products Company, Detroit, Michigan

Fenestra
FENWROUGHT CASEMENTS (Screened)

Fenestra
FENWROUGHT CASEMENTS

A Modern style Living Room, decorated by Kem Weber for Barker Brothers, Los Angeles. Fenestra Casement Windows manufactured by Detroit Steel Products Company, Detroit, Michigan

Fenestra
FENWROUGHT CASEMENTS

An Early American Bedroom, decorated by Kayser & All- man, Philadelphia. Fenestra Casement Windows manufactured by Detroit Steel Products Company,
Detroit, Michigan

Fenestra
FENWROUGHT CASEMENTS (Screened)

A Southern Colonial Living Room as interpreted by the W. E. Browne Decorating Company, Atlanta. Fenestra Casement Windows manufactured by Detroit Steel Products Company, Detroit, Michigan